MRS. RICHARD L. RICE
New Bride

Steffle-Rice Vows Made In Afternoon Ceremony

Miss Sharon Frances Steffle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vorley L. Steffle of Chatsworth, became the bride of Richard L. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Rice, 2045 W. 177th St., Sept. 7 in an afternoon ceremony of the Inglewood First Methodist Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white lace gown with long sleeves. The taffeta skirt trailed into a long train and she wore a finger-tip veil. For flowers, she carried a white orchid surrounded by spider mums. Mrs. Suzanne Prasse was matron of honor in a dark green dress and she carried a bouquet of light bronze mums. Bridesmaids were Linda Reeder in light green, Rosalie Bean in yellow, and Nancy Thompson in a copper-colored gown. All carried different shades of mums. Robert L. Rice served as best man while ushers were Michael Steffle, William Rice and Burton Prasse. The more than 125 guests heard Lois Wendland sing "With This Ring, I Thee Wed," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer." Vonnie Grace Steffle registered guests. The bride attended schools in Inglewood, Whittier and Pierce Colleges. The bridegroom attended Inglewood and El Camino College. They are now at home at 527 W. Hyde Park Blvd., Inglewood, following a trip to the Valley of Enchantment.

Caroline Valenzuela Becomes Bride of Robert L. Lewis

Miss Caroline Frances Valenzuela, daughter of Mrs. A. L. Valenzuela, 20913 S. Perry Ave., and the late Mr. Valenzuela, exchanged vows with Robert Louis Lewis, USN, of Hamilton, Ohio, Sept. 9.

Mr. Lewis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis, also of Hamilton. The double ring ceremony was conducted by the Rev. McLaughlin of the St. Lucy Church in Wilmington before only close friends and family. The bride, given in marriage by Keith Lee, was charming in a Chantilly lace creation. The gown had a heart-shaped neckline and long sleeves of lace. The bodice was beaded with rhinestones and the full skirt was made of ruffled tiers of net over satin. Her illusion veil was caught by a pearl tiara and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations. Patricia Valenzuela, sister of the bride, was maid of honor in a powder blue lace and net over taffeta gown. She carried pink carnations. Best man was Walter James Egan. After the wedding a reception was held at the Long Beach home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lee.

GOLDEN WEDDING
Close friends and relatives from the Redondo-Torrance area attended the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyle of Redondo Beach. The dinner party was hosted at the Plush Horse restaurant by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Radkovich. The Doyles were married in 1907 in the St. David parish at Meadow-Head, Whittrigg, Airdrie, Scotland.

EARLY COLOR TV
Color television experiments date back to as early as 1929.
